The Sergeant-at-Arms will also properly place a gavel and prepare the Altar and stations. The correct station cover should be on each station, and the Altar should be properly draped. A closed Bible and folded Charter shall be placed on the Altar.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Thirty (30) minutes prior to the Conferral, the candidates are asked to assemble in the ante room. The President and Secretary will introduce themselves and briefly outline procedures and information to assist the candidates. The Secretary can save time during the meeting by completing a roll call of candidates at this time.

The Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms shall take positions at the principle entrance to the meeting room, and all other entrances shall be closed. Membership cards and candidates' credentials, as provided by the Secretary, shall be examined upon entry. Other than candidates, Moose Legion members that cannot produce a membership card with current dates for Lodge and Moose Legion dues are not to be admitted to any Moose Legion Conferral. Any questions should be reported to the President. Moose Legionnaires should be directed to seats around the room, and candidates shall be seated in prescribed chairs.

Only Moose Legion members in active status are allowed to attend Business meetings of the Moose Legion.

My Brothers, it is an honor and privilege to welcome you to the Moose Legion, and to this conferral of the Degree of Service.

(The Conferral President continues his charge while moving to Position 8.)

An invitation to take this next step in fraternalism was extended to you because you met the requirements necessary for elevation to this Degree, and because you have demonstrated your dedication to three great principles of the Loyal Order of Moose: Purity of mind, body and heart; Aid to our fellow members and our fellow man; and Progress that ensures fraternal growth and prosperity for years to come.

Congratulations on attaining this level of fraternal achievement. Through your loyalty and dedication to our cause, you have risen above others and have established yourself as a most important member of your Lodge. Because of this, you will now advance into the higher degrees of our Order.

When you applied for membership in the Loyal Order of Moose, you signed an obligation promising to give of your energy and substance in support of Mooseheart and Moosehaven, and to increase the strength of our Order by proposing qualified individuals for membership. Your presence here today indicates that you have fulfilled that initial obligation. As you become a proud Moose Legionnaire, you will take your rightful place in the history of the Moose Legion and its many accomplishments. In return, we ask for a lifetime commitment to the noble endeavor of doing some good thing for someone each day.

Listen carefully as the Orator relates the mission of the Moose fraternity.

(As the Conferral President breaks Position 8, the Orator rises, steps off on his left foot and advances to Position 8. He does not begin his charge until the Conferral President is seated.)

ORATOR: Moose (Pause) an international organization of men and women, dedicated to caring for young and old, bringing communities closer together and celebrating life. This statement not only describes the mission of our Order (Pause) it is the very essence of who we are, what we believe and what we do.

Our caring for kids begins at Mooseheart, a one thousand acre community located 40 miles west of Chicago. This magnificent educational and residential facility for children in need is one of the crowning achievements of the Moose fraternity. It is a complete community, with modern family style homes; its own school; health care and recreational facilities; and the magnificent House of God, where our foster sons and daughters worship in the faith in which they were raised. Throughout Mooseheart's existence, students have excelled in our athletic, musical and vocational programs, and countless numbers of our graduates have become leaders in all walks of life.

Caring for senior members of our Order begins at Moosehaven, our City of Contentment, located on the banks of the St. Johns River in Orange Park, Florida. Moosehaven is a state-of-the art retirement community where our senior members and their spouses live together free from the care and burden that age sometimes brings.

Moosehaven is not just a retirement community; it is home (Pause) a home of comfort, convenience and security with residents who are active and independent. The atmosphere that we have created is adding life to their years and years to their lives.

One of the cornerstones of our fraternal operation is Community Service. It breathes life into our motto of 'doing some good thing for someone each day'. Our fraternal units contribute tens of millions of dollars in community service annually. We strive to reach even greater heights in our charitable efforts, which will strengthen our reputation of caring for those in need. We believe that the greater our deeds, the stronger our fraternity.

When we talk about celebrating life, we are referring to much more than social activities. You will form lifelong friendships with Moose Legionnaires throughout the fraternity, creating lasting memories and treasuring them forever. We celebrate life by remembering our past, enjoying our present and ensuring our future.

Moose Legionnaires give added force and meaning to the celebration of life by advancing the principles of Faith, Hope and Charity; faith in our cause, hope for continued success and an increased obligation to charity that comes with advancement within our ranks.

Hear now the inspiring message of Faith.

FAITH: The emblem of our Order is unique in all the animal kingdom. The moose is strong and majestic. He takes only what he needs, nothing more. By nature, he is a protector and defender. Forming a defending circle with his brethren in their prime, he becomes a guardian for his family (Pause) a family that includes every member of the herd, especially the very young and very old; those who are most vulnerable.

The strength created by this action illustrates our belief in the old saying ‘one for all and all for one’.

New members are vital to the continued strength of the Loyal Order of Moose and the Moose Legion. You are within our Defending Circle. As a component of this Circle, you are counted upon to look after other members and assist those in need. The form of the Circle communicates the message that we stand ready to help one another. At meetings of our Lodge, whenever a member has gone to his final reward, we break the Defending Circle to acknowledge that he is absent and will forever be missed.

We have faith in our members and believe strongly that ‘a burden heavy to one is borne lightly by many’. The Legend of the Locked Horns is a long-standing parable about two moose in deadly combat, fighting one another (Pause) rather than fighting together for the common good. In that fight, the horns of the two moose lock together. Neither can break free. Both are lost forever, and the herd is diminished. This story demonstrates that we must work together in a harmonious way to increase the achievements of our Order and the communities we are privileged to serve.

Here stands the reality of the mission of James J Davis, our first Director General and the creator of the Moose Legion. His vision was to band together the men and women of the Moose to serve first the entire family, and then to reach out to those outside our Defending Circle through unselfish acts of kindness. This great vision continues today!

Now hear the message of Hope.

HOPE: The year 1913 was momentous in the history of our fraternity. In addition to the formation of the Women of the Moose, we saw the opening and dedication of our Child City, Mooseheart. This community was a most ambitious undertaking for our young organization, and it presented a new urgency to provide an avenue for those members who wished to make even greater contributions. As a result, the Moose Legion was born that same year.

Initially, the sole purpose of the Moose Legion was to create a one million dollar endowment fund that would meet the financial needs of the fledgling Mooseheart campus. As the fraternity continued to grow, so too did the role of the Moose Legion. When our fraternal leaders sought to establish a retirement community for our senior members, it was the Moose Legion that helped to finance the purchase and development of the land that would become our City of Contentment, Moosehaven. Today, our campuses are filled with structures and landmarks that have been constructed thanks to the generosity of Moose Legionnaires throughout the fraternity.

In addition, the Moose Legion provides financial support to maintain two important resources. Since 1959, our Mooseheart children have enjoyed year-round recreation at Camp Ross, a one hundred fifty-acre facility located 60 miles west of Mooseheart. Funds from each member's annual dues are designated for the operation of Camp Ross, and are used to maintain and expand the facility. This rolling, beautifully wooded retreat, combined with modern amenities and a secure location, has given our students a getaway that they continue to enjoy throughout the year.

Members of the Moose Legion also ensure top-notch medical care for our Moosehaven residents by maintaining the Moosehaven Seniors' Medical Fund. As with Camp Ross, a portion of each Moose Legionnaire's dues is used exclusively to help defray the increasing costs of medical services for our seniors. By assuming these added responsibilities, it is easy to see why the Moose Legion is identified as the "Degree of Service".

Gentlemen, we are the men who make things happen, the men who get things done! Our instant response, whenever an essential need has been presented at Mooseheart or Moosehaven, has become legendary within this Order, and indeed expected as the norm. We are extremely proud that we have earned this reputation (Pause) and we have no doubt that you will do your part in helping to maintain it. You have heard the messages of Faith and Hope. Listen further as you are enlightened with words from Charity.

CHARITY: When we were children, we learned about receiving. We received gifts on special occasions and it brought us joy. As we grew older, we began to realize that it is more rewarding to give than to receive. Your advancement into the Moose Legion provides even more opportunities to experience the joy of giving (Pause) the greatest joy of all.

In the spirit of charity, Moose Legionnaires initiated a “Penny Fund” in 1913 to address any emergency that may befall our beloved Child City. Since that time, the “Penny Fund” has evolved into the Mooseheart/Moosehaven Endowment Fund, and tens of millions of dollars have been contributed by our members to ensure significant financial assistance for both our Child City and our City of Contentment. Our members continue to give today, and the interest earned on our investment provides support to the essential needs of both communities.

In addition, our fraternal units support projects that serve local communities. Wherever and whatever the need, Moose Legionnaires are there, and they are actively involved. It is not just a matter of giving of your money; it is also giving of your time. Membership in the Moose Legion will provide you with proof that commitment and service go hand in hand with fun and fellowship. By providing outstanding service to our communities, we draw others to our Order, more for what we do than for what we say.

Your elevation into the Moose Legion unlocks the door to further advancement in our Order, and provides you with the pride of knowing that you do, in fact, make a difference in the lives of others.

Prepare now to receive your obligation of membership in the Moose Legion and acknowledge your commitment as a Moose Legionnaire.

CONFERRAL PRESIDENT: My Brothers, you have responded to a call to let your light shine brighter than ever before, in service to those in need. Please stand and join me in reciting the Oath of Allegiance to the Moose Legion.

(The - Conferral President gestures the class and staff to rise as the words "Please stand " are spoken. His attention shall be on the class.)

Please raise your right hand, place your left hand over your heart, and repeat after me, using your name where I use mine:

(The - Conferral President will demonstrate his instructions for raising the right hand and placing the left hand over the heart. Movements will be performed after each instruction is given. Movements by staff members shall be done in unison with the Conferral President. Staff members shall repeat the obligation along with the class.)

I _____ - in the presence of those here assembled - do solemnly promise - that I will faithfully - and to the best of my ability - exemplify the principles - and precepts of the Moose Legion. - I will be steadfast in my commitment - and tireless in my efforts - in support of the Degree of Service. - To all of this – I pledge my sacred oath - so help me God.

You may lower your hands. (The - Conferral President lowers his hand after saying the words “You may lower your hands”. Staff members lower their hands in unison with the - Conferral President.)

It is with honor and humility that I confer upon you the title of Moose Legionnaire. May you wear your regalia proudly as a symbol of the recognition that has been provided you in return for your continued loyalty and dedication.

You may be seated. (Pause) Pay heed to the lessons of Loyalty and remember them from this day forth.

(The - Conferral President gestures the class and staff to be seated as the words “You may be seated” are spoken.)

(As the - Conferral President breaks Position 8, Loyalty rises, exits Position 5 with station on his left and proceeds to Position 8 to deliver his charge. He does not begin his charge until the Conferral President is seated.)

LOYALTY: Moose Legionnaires, we congratulate you on the honor this day bestowed upon you. You have taken the next step in fraternalism, and with that step comes expectations. You will be held to a higher standard, and your words and actions will carry greater volume and meaning. You have been asked to increase your service to children and senior members by contributing more of your time, energy and substance to the causes we represent.

Since our inception, thousands of Moose Legionnaires have proudly stepped forward and accepted the challenges that have been placed before them, and they have always come through.

Moose Legionnaires are leaders. They are the fuel that feeds the fire; the engine that drives the car; but most of all, they are loyal fraternalists who roll up their sleeves and make things happen. They recognize that there are no greater responsibilities in this fraternity than strengthening its membership and providing financial support to Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

In addition to loyalty, another defining trait of a Moose Legionnaire is pride. We are proud of our accomplishments. We show our pride by wearing the official regalia of our degree (Pause) a maroon blazer featuring the Moose Legion logo, with coordinating tie, white shirt and black trousers and accessories. Moose Legionnaires who have been elevated to honorary degrees of our Order wear blazers of different colors – French Blue for those who have received the Fellowship Degree of Honor and Gold for those who have been bestowed with the highest degree of our Order, the Pilgrim Degree of Merit. While the colors may be different, all three blazers represent similar qualities (Pause) commitment to this fraternity, to its honored past and to its strong and bright future.

Everyone please rise (Pause) as Faith offers prayer.

(Loyalty gestures the class and staff to rise as the words “Everyone please rise” are spoken. His attention shall be on the class.)

(As Loyalty breaks Position 8, Faith rises, exits Position 2 with station on left and advances to Position 1. He does not begin the prayer until Loyalty is standing at Position 5.)

(Faith will demonstrate his instructions for folding arms and bowing heads. Movements will be performed after each instruction is given. Movements of staff members shall be done in unison with Faith. Staff members' arms must be folded uniformly. After assuming prayer posture, Faith slowly raises his head to normal speaking position and delivers his prayer.)

FAITH: Let us fold our arms (Pause) and bow our heads. (Pause) Almighty God, we give thanks for these new Moose Legionnaires. We pray that our experience here today will provide a positive and lasting influence. May the words we have heard be an inspiration unto our hearts; may we go forth with a better understanding of the good we do, and more dedicated to our cause than ever before.

Bind us together and instill in our hearts the caring and devotion to our cause and help us to see that cause carried out through the fulfillment of the pledge we have freely taken.

May we truly enjoy the warmth and goodness of making a positive difference in the lives of others. We ask that a special blessing be bestowed upon all the men and women of the Moose, and each member of their families, and may that same divine blessing touch every part of this great fraternity itself. Amen.

(At the completion of the prayer, Faith will hold his position until staff has repeated "Amen". Faith does not re-bow his head. The staff and Faith break prayer posture in unison. Prayer posture is broken by first raising the head, then lowering the arms.)

(The Conferral President does not rap the gavel until Faith has returned to his station and is turned at his chair. After rapping the gavel, he shall gesture to seat everyone as he says, "Everyone please be seated." He remains standing himself, and pauses for everyone to be seated before addressing class.)

CONFERRAL PRESIDENT: (Gives one rap and gestures to seat everyone; staff members, with the exception of the President, seat themselves in unison; Conferral President delivers charge in Position 4): Everyone please be seated. (Pause) Moose Legionnaires, you have accepted our invitation and joined with us in our worthwhile endeavor. You deserve the gratitude and admiration of Moose members everywhere.

You are now a part of a higher degree of our Order, and are eligible to become a member of the Council of Higher Degrees and support their fraternal efforts.

Be ever mindful of the promises made today. Never pass up an opportunity to demonstrate, in word and deed, the characteristics of Faith, Hope, Charity, and Loyalty, the cornerstones of our Degree.

As the staff retires from the floor (Pause as staff rises in unison) our conferral will come to a close.

(After a slight pause, the Conferral President will step off on his left foot and proceed toward Position 10 (per Diagram 3). Loyalty will fall into line behind the Conferral President. Hope will fall into line behind Loyalty. All three will stop at a point 90 degrees to their chairs and centered. After a short pause, the Conferral President, Loyalty and Hope will turn right and be seated. In unison with the Conferral President, the Orator will step off on his right foot and proceed toward Position 9 (per Diagram 3). Charity will fall into line behind the Orator. Faith will fall into line behind Charity. All three will stop at a point 90 degrees to their chairs and centered. After a short pause, the Orator, Charity and Faith will turn left and be seated. Movements by all staff members on vacating shall be performed in unison.) (After the - Conferral Staff has retired, the directors and appointed officers resume their positions.)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Staff members will avoid looking at the floor at any time.

All staff members seated at stations will enter and leave their stations with station on their left, with the exception of Faith and Charity during entry of staff at the beginning of the ceremony. Members may not put their hands upon their stations. Touching the Altar cloth or brushing against the Altar or stations is not a violation; however, kicking chairs, stations or the Altar, or dropping the gavel is not permitted. When a staff member rises from his chair for the purpose of moving to a floor position, he may pause before stepping off, but once started he must continue without interruption until he has reached his position. A ritualist may move within the parameters of Position 8 after establishing the position, but his toes must remain within its boundaries during his charge.

Being natural and impressive are the most important elements of a successful Conferral Ceremony. The delivery of the charge to the candidates in a meaningful and memorable manner is by far the primary concern, and thus should be the same during competition. All movements should be graceful.

While moving and speaking in Position 8, a staff member may only use his right hand when turning right or moving to the right, and only his left hand when turning left or moving to the left. He should never turn his back on the candidates while speaking.

“A ritualist breaks Position 8” is defined as the time after a pivot or turn between his first foot crossing the outer edge of Position 8, and his last foot to leave Position 8 and touch the floor outside of Position 8. Facing the Bible, the class, the Conferral President, the flag or toward Mooseheart is done by centering the body in that direction. Centering the body means turning both feet in that direction. This also applies to the Conferral President when he is speaking from Position 4.

Staff members must turn left and step off their left foot to go left, and must turn right and step off on their right foot to go right. Both feet should not turn simultaneously. Stepping off is defined as raising the foot and moving it in the direction of the intended move.

All staff members should move to and from floor positions by the shortest possible route except on entering and vacating or where movements are prescribed. A side step may be taken when leaving a chair at a station.

There will be no unnecessary delay in following the Conferral President's instructions, including raps of the gavel. The Conferral President does not seat himself after one rap.

Heads may be turned at any time for the purpose of watching the movements of others. Heads shall be turned to put attention on the Conferral president when he is speaking.

GESTURES

A gesture is an expressive movement of the body, or part of the body, used to emphasize an idea, emotion, action or specific point.

Timely hand gestures that are smooth and natural should be used during every charge. A gesture is most effective when it is made at the same time as the related words are spoken.

Nodding or shaking the head may be used to emphasize meaning, but constant movement of the head is prohibited. Staff members should use relaxed, open-handed gestures. They may use fingers or relaxed-close handed motions to emphasize a point. They may not point at a person, place or thing with one finger or use a clenched fist. When not gesturing, hands should be in front of the body or at the sides.

Hands or fingers may be clasped, but should not be held behind the back, placed in pockets or placed on hips. When gesturing in the direction of the Altar or class, a ritualist may use either or both hands. When gestures are made to help express oneself and attention is still on the class, the hand or hands may be extended to the side and away from the body. Constant use or movement of the hands is permitted, and either or both hands may be used for gestures. Looking at the hands when gesturing is not a violation.

A staff member should not rock on his feet, continually bob or shake his head, or permit his hands to indicate nervousness. He should do nothing with his head, hands or body that will distract from his presentation.

Gestures should be made as words are spoken when motioning the class or staff to rise or be seated.

ATTENTION AND SPEAKING

Unless otherwise directed, each staff member must begin and complete his charge in Position 8 while facing the class. He must stop and establish position before speaking or moving. A staff member may move within Position 8 except as indicated.

While in Position 8, staff members shall speak only to the class. Staff members need not complete a sentence before shifting attention.

A nod of the head SHOULD NOT be given upon the completion of a charge. Avoid dropping the voice at the end of a sentence. Enunciate clearly, pronounce words correctly and speak in a natural voice.

The Conferral Staff shall be attentive at all times and have their attention on the person speaking. The staff should be uniform in positioning their hands while seated, and should do nothing to cause distraction while at their chairs or stations.

Staff members should be friendly and relaxed when delivering their charges. They should refrain from a monotone or singsong delivery. The charge should be delivered with impressiveness. The ceremony is not intended to be humorous, but an occasional friendly smile will add to impressiveness. Speaking parts should be delivered in full and exactly as written.

After an entry is submitted, no more than three substitutions are permitted.

Before being able to participate in State/Provincial or International Conferral Competitions, all ritualists and class members must be officially registered at the corresponding convention, conference or celebration. The Chairman of the Competition is responsible for securing an adequate room for competition and assuring that the room is set up properly. The following items are required: stations, chairs, Altar, Bible, flag, gavel and Altar and station covers. When all paraphernalia has been placed for competition, station chairs and chairs in Positions 9 & 10 may be moved to satisfy each team.

The Chairman of the Judging Committee will assume full responsibility for conducting a proper competition and enforcing all applicable rules. He is the final authority on interpretation of the rules and is authorized to “NO CHARGE” any “hit” he feels is questionable. Judges may not make any changes to their sheets once they have been given to Chairman, except to make clarifications.

Decisions of the Chairman of the Judging Committee are final, and only tabulation errors or undisputed posting errors will be corrected. The Chairman will set the time limit for corrections to be made.

When tabulation errors or posting errors are reported within the time limit and awards have been presented, a duplicate award is presented and there is a tie for the place in question. Cash awards should not be presented until scores have been adjusted and properly placed.

When places of finish have been announced, teams and individuals with adjusted scores will be placed in a tie with teams or individuals scoring the same or next fewest points. Two Word Judges and a minimum of two approved out-of-state Floor Judges shall be used in all competitions having six or more teams. When there are fewer than six teams in a competition, one approved out-of-state Floor Judge may be used WITH THE PERMISSION OF THE DIRECTOR OF MOOSE LEGION.

Out-of-state Conferral Judges are not to accept responsibility as either Chairman of the Competition Committee or Chairman of the Judging Committee.

They are also not to attend a conferral just prior to competition to view a competing staff in action.

Judge No. 1 is seated between Position 10 and the class.

Judge No. 2 is seated between Position 9 and the class. If only one judge is used, he may judge from either of these positions. One Word Judge will do the word judging and the other will do the prompting. The Word Judge and the Prompter are seated behind Position 10. In International Competition, a Technical Judge will be seated behind Position 9 and an Impressive Judge will be seated behind the class between the two chairs.

Members of the Loyal Order of Moose who do not belong to the Moose Legion are not permitted to view Moose Legion Conferral Competitions. Those in attendance shall remain quiet and maintain proper decorum. Spectators and competing ritualists are not permitted to move about, smoke, drink alcoholic beverages, display or use any papers or books, make any notes, or use any recording devices while a staff is competing. Cellular phones and other electronic devices must be turned off.

A ritualist who holds multiple memberships may compete with multiple staffs in any competition provided the ritualist is in active status in the respective Moose Legion jurisdiction. A ritualist will only receive one award for his highest score. A Conferral Staff member may be used as a fill-in on any staff qualified to compete if he has already competed. A fill-in will not be scored, but may be used as a class candidate prior to competing.

The Chairman of the Judging Committee, the Tabulator and all judges may not compete in any competition in which they are associated, nor may they be used as a fill in or as a class candidate. The Moose Legion Secretary must certify on the Conferral Competition Entry Form that each staff member is active status in his Lodge and in the Moose Legion for which he is competing.

A team must report for competition 30 minutes prior to their scheduled time, unless an acceptable excuse is made to the Chairman of the Judging Committee by a representative of the team. The burden of proof for an acceptable excuse will be on the team. When the excuse has been found to be acceptable, the team will be rescheduled to the end of the competition, or earlier if circumstances permit.

If an emergency occurs prior to or after arrival at the place of competition, any member of the Moose Legion may be used as a fill-in and may read or recite the part for the purpose of permitting other staff members to compete for individual awards. The fill-in will not be judged, nor will he receive a score. This provision does not apply to any team using a qualified substitution.

There may be an occasion when a staff member is unable to continue, even after the staff has reported and entered into competition. Should this occur, activity will immediately cease and the team may be rescheduled to the end of competition, or earlier if circumstances permit.

Score sheets will be marked at the time of interruption. Although a member may commence again from the beginning of his part if he so desires, the judging will continue from the point of interruption. A substitution may be made if necessary, but the substitute will not be judged. Any member of the staff or any member of the Judging Committee may call for an interruption if, in their opinion, a staff member appears to be ill.

Judges are not permitted to leave their positions or make any distracting moves while a staff is on the floor. They shall not converse with one another until their sheets have been completed and turned in to the Chairman. Word Judges may ask for assistance from the Prompter after a staff is off the floor, but this should not take place in a manner that others can hear. Immediately after competing, a Conferral staff must exit the floor without conversing with any Floor Judges or Word Judges. A ¼ point penalty may be assessed on any ritualist determined to be in violation of this provision.

Judges shall not converse with any ritualists concerning errors or make any suggestions until the entire competition has been completed and results have been distributed. However, the Chairman of the Competition Committee may answer questions prior to a ritualist appearing on the floor.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

(Code of Rules Chapter 11.3)

Organization

Every Moose Legion is required by the Code of Rules to hold an election of directors during the Annual Celebration scheduled between March 15 - April 30 of each year. The five (5) elected directors are President, Vice-President, Chaplain, Fraternal Director and Financial Director. The only exceptions are: (1) a newly instituted Moose Legion, (2) a Moose Legion that has received written permission from the International Moose Legion Director, or (3) an emergency situation requiring an election to be changed or waived.

The Nominating Committee is probably the most important committee of the Moose Legion. Selection of qualified candidates will ensure success for the Moose Legion.

Composition

The Nominating Committee consists of:

The Board of Directors (7)

The duly appointed Assistant Secretaries representing the Lodges within the jurisdiction.

Meetings

The Nominating Committee meets at least forty-five (45) days prior to the Annual Celebration scheduled between March 15 – April 30 of each year, to select candidates for the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall advise each member of the Nominating Committee of the date of this meeting at least thirty (30) days in advance.

Responsibilities

The Nominating Committee has two main responsibilities: Select at least one (1) Moose Legionnaire for each elected office and ensure five (5) different Lodges are represented on the elected Board of Directors. (Provided the Moose Legion has that number of Lodges)

Nominees should possess the desire to run for office, as well as leadership qualities, people skills and the willingness to contribute time and effort to the success of their Moose Legion. The committee may nominate more than one Moose Legionnaire for a particular office.

Report to the Membership (Code of Rules Chapter 11.3)

A written report listing the candidates by office shall be presented to the membership a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to the election. These names are placed upon the official Moose Legion ballot for those offices requiring use of paper ballot (versus voting sign of the Order). Petitions or nominations from the floor are prohibited.

Dissolution

The Nominating Committee is not a standing committee. After the written report has been given to the Moose Legion, the Nominating Committee is automatically dissolved. Subsequent elections require the committee to meet again.

CAMPAIGNING (Code of Rules Chapter 11.4)

The printing, circulating or distribution of resolutions, letters, tickets, other written or printed materials, or through any electronic media by a Moose Legionnaire or anyone acting on his behalf, suggesting, recommending, opposing or containing the names of proposed candidates for office, is strictly prohibited. For any violation of this section, the offending member(s) may be suspended and, the election of such director(s) declared void with orders issued for a new election. Verbal campaigning is allowed.

ELIGIBILITY OF NOMINEES (Code of Rules Chapter 11.7)

A Moose Legionnaire wishing to be considered for nomination shall submit his name in writing, designating the particular office he desires. The nomination is submitted to any member of the committee prior to the scheduled Nominating Committee meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consider all names submitted and select from these names, or other names approved by the committee, at least one (1) candidate for the offices of President, Vice-President, Chaplain, Fraternal Director, and Financial Director respectively. However, certain requirements and qualifications are necessary for nomination to the office of President. (See paragraph under "qualifications")

NOTE: These requirements do not apply to a newly instituted Moose Legion.

DIRECTOR QUALIFICATIONS

Board of Directors (Code of Rules Chapter 11.7)

A Moose Legionnaire must be in active status with his Lodge and must have at least six (6) months of active status Moose Legion membership in his Moose Legion, preceding May 1st of the year of his election. He must also have completed an authorized Moose Legion Educational Conference (MLEC) within two (2) years prior to assuming office. A member may only hold one (1) elected office in the Moose Legion at the same time. A member who has been removed from office is not eligible to hold office again for a three (3) year period unless approved by written dispensation of the International Moose Legion Director. A member under suspension because of charges preferred against him is eligible as a candidate for election to office, but if found guilty of a charge affecting his membership, the office shall be declared vacant. Elected Directors shall not be eligible to serve more than two (2) terms in any one (1) office unless authorized by the International Moose Legion Director. A dispensation will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and for compelling reasons.

President (Code of Rules Chapter 11.7)

A Moose Legionnaire must complete at least one (1) year in another elected office of the Moose Legion in which he seeks office, and complete an authorized Moose Legion Educational Conference (MLEC) within two (2) years prior to assuming office. This requirement may be waived by dispensation from the International Moose Legion Director. After completing his term(s) as President, a Moose Legionnaire is not eligible to serve in another elected office, except as specified in the Code of Rules.

Election Committee (Code of Rules Chapter 11.5)

The President shall appoint an Election Committee of three (3) active status Moose Legionnaires who are not members of the Board of Directors or candidates for elected office. The committee shall conduct the election, pass on all questions concerning the election, count the ballots and report to the Moose Legion the results of the election. Each member of the committee shall sign the report and the report shall be attached to the Moose Legion minutes. The Election Committee is responsible for security and at no time shall any ballots or the ballot box be left unattended by any member of the committee. The committee must keep a record of all ballots issued. Ballots shall be counted (not numbered) to verify the number of Moose Legionnaires voting with the number of ballots. The ballot box must be sealed and initialed by the committee, and shall remain in the possession of the Election Committee for a period of forty-eight (48) hours. If no written challenge is made to the election within forty-eight (48) hours, the ballots are destroyed. If a written challenge is made to a member of the Election Committee within forty-eight (48) hours of the closing of the election, the Election Committee shall impound the ballots pending final determination by the Election Committee, or by any appellate officer or tribunal. Challenges or complaints regarding the election must be made to the Election Committee. A challenger must be allowed to witness the recount along with the committee.

Installation of Directors (Code of Rules Chapter 11.8)

The elected Directors and appointed officers shall be installed at the Annual Celebration or at a special installation ceremony approved by the Board of Directors prior to May 1 each year. The Junior Past President (who served as such during the past year) shall be the installing officer of his Moose Legion. All duly elected, appointed and installed officers shall take office as of Midnight, April 30th of each year. If for any reason the Junior Past President cannot act, the President-elect may appoint any Past President of the Moose Legion to conduct the installation ceremonies.

Vacancies (Code of Rules Chapter 11.9)

If a vacancy occurs in any elective office other than President or Secretary, the office shall be filled by appointment of a qualified Moose Legionnaire by the Board of Directors. If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the Vice- President shall assume the office as Acting President for the remainder of the term or until another Director is selected by the Board. If the vacancy occurs prior to November and the Acting President completes the term, he will be considered a Past Moose Legion President. Immediately upon a vacancy in the office of Secretary, the Board of Directors may appoint an Acting Secretary to serve for a period of time not to exceed six (6) months or until the next annual or special election, whichever shall first occur. The Financial Director shall serve as Acting Secretary on an interim basis until an Acting Secretary is appointed, but in no case for a period of time exceeding six (6) months. The International Moose Legion Director may declare any office vacant for a violation by the officeholder of the Code of Rules, General Laws or policies of Moose International, and appoint a qualified member of the Moose Legion to fill the vacancy created.

Election of Directors

The general election shall be held at a general membership meeting during the Annual Celebration scheduled between March 15 and April 30 of each year. Even if there is only one (1) candidate for each office, an election must be held. The election cannot be waived by a Moose Legion. Only active status Moose Legionnaires are eligible to vote during the election of the Board of Directors.

Voting By Ballot (Code of Rules Chapter 11.6)

The election should be the first order of business after the roll call of Directors and appointed officers. A late arriving member may be allowed to vote if the election is still in progress. The election must conclude in time for the Election Committee to count and tabulate the ballots and report results to the presiding officer. The results of the election may be announced as the last item of business before closing the meeting. A member may only vote for one (1) candidate for each office. Balloting shall be conducted in conformity with the Moose Legion Code of Rules and General Laws of the Order. A paper ballot must be prepared for each office having two (2) or more nominees. The Secretary shall prepare official ballots listing all names submitted by the Nominating Committee. The candidate for each office receiving a majority (two (2) or less candidates) or a plurality (three (3) or more candidates) of "yes" votes cast shall be declared elected. No absentee ballot, proxy vote or Australian Ballot shall be allowed.

By Sign of the Order (Code of Rules Chapter 11.6)

If there is only one (1) candidate for each office, the Moose Legion may dispense with the paper ballot and conduct the election by using the voting sign of the Moose Legion. This must be decided just prior to the election. If approved, this method must be used for all uncontested offices.

After the report of the Nominating Committee, the presiding officer calls for a motion to adopt the recommendation of the Nominating Committee and to elect those uncontested nominees for the offices specified. After receiving a motion and second, the presiding officer will ask all in favor to raise their hands and then ask all those opposed to raise their hands. Should those 'opposed' prevail, the election must proceed by paper ballot. However, it is permissible to conduct an election by paper ballot for each nominee. Any uncontested nominee receiving one (1) 'yes' vote is automatically elected. 'No' votes are not counted.

CONCLUSION

We hope this handbook will answer many of the questions you have regarding the election process. However, if you still have a question or need clarification about the procedures involved you should:

Review the Code of Rules and this handbook to clarify the point of issue in question.

After studying the Code of Rules, if you are still unsure or unclear on the point or issue, talk with other experienced members (i.e. Past Presidents, Secretary), your International Moose Legion Ambassador, Moose Legion Area Manager, or a Member of the International Moose Legion Council.

After exhausting the above, and if time allows, submit your question in writing to the International Moose Legion Director for clarification. If time is of the essence, call the International Moose Legion Office for assistance at (630) 966-2227. Written questions may be faxed to (630) 966-2208.
