9-0 Red Rambler Football Team To Host Playoff Game Saturday, October 29, 2011 At 5PM

The Mooseheart Red Ramblers capped off a perfect 9-0 regular football season by defeating the previously unbeaten North Shore Raiders 17-7 in what amounted to the Northeastern Athletic Conference Championship Game this past Saturday. This marks Mooseheart's first undefeated season and conference championship in a quarter century. Mooseheart, the smallest school in Illinois high school football, garnered a top seed in the 32 team Class 1A playoff bracket.

The Ramblers first round playoff game will be played at home on the Mooseheart Campus this Saturday, October 29th against the Princeville Princes. Kickoff is scheduled for 5PM. The team would certainly appreciate the support of Moose members from near and far in the home team stands. Normally there is no admission charge to attend Mooseheart home games. However, the Illinois High School Association mandates a $5 admission charge for first round playoff games. Come out and support your undefeated Red Ramblers!
